Data Privacy Policy

This privacy statement informs any visitor of this website about type, scope and objective of recording, processing and use of any data provided with each visit according to the German law. The operator of this website takes the security of your data seriously and tries to ensure that as little as possible data is store as safely as possible. However, please note that any transmission of data via the internet is potentially a risk.

This website does not use any features like subscriptions for newsletters or contact forms.

Social Media Plugins

This website uses so-called social media plugins, in particular Facebook´s button. When you visit a page that displays one more of such buttons your browser will establish a direct connection to the respective Facebook server. Thus, Facebook can identify the site visited.

The operator of this website has no influence on the data collected by Facebook. According to the available information, however, by clicking on the Facebook button, no personally identifiable data will be collected and stored unless you have logged in to your Facebook account. In that case certain user data (including your IP address) may be collected and linked to the accoutn information already present at Facebook. To prevent this, log out of your Facebook account before visiting our website.

Facebook may set cookies, unless you have disabled the acceptance and storage of cookies in your browser settings as mentioned above.
